Describe in detail all of the following criteria. Failure to address all items may result in the request being returned without action. Information regarding the following areas may be continued on additional pages.

1. Employee Unique Qualifications: Document the technician's unusually high or unique qualifications. These typically refer to a technician's competencies, such as knowledge, skills, or abilities. Include training, specialized work experience, formal schools, or certifications relative to this position. (5 CFR 575.106 (a)(1))

2. Recruitment Challenges: Availability and quality of candidates with the competencies required for the position and who, with minimal training, cost, or disruption of service to the public, could perform the full range of duties and responsibilities of the position. Include previous recruitment efforts. (5 CFR 575.106 (b)(1)).

3. Competitor Salaries: Salary typically paid outside the Federal Government for similar positions. (See www.bls.gov). (5 CFR 575.106 (b)(2)).

4. Current Trends: Recent turnover with similar positions, and employment trends/labor-market factors that may affect the agency's ability to recruit candidates for similar positions. (5 CFR 575.106 (b)(3)(4))

5. Retention Challenges: Agency efforts to use non-pay authorities to help retain the employee instead of or in addition to a retention incentive, such as special training, scheduling flexibilities or improved working conditions. (5 CFR 575.106 (b)(6))

6. Desirability of the Position: The desirability of the duties, work/organizational environment, or geographic location of the position. (5 CFR 575.106 (b)(7))

7. Additional Information: Other supporting factors or continued justification from previous sections. (5 CFR 575.106 (b)(8))
