Report of Results of Investigation
CMD-IG-23-011

1. PURPOSE AND AUTHORITY: The California Military Department Inspector General (CMD-IG) Office received a complaint regarding a State Active Duty (SAD) MG, on or around (o/a) 20 November 2022. The complainant alleged that a MG made offensive remarks as identified by the complainant. On 9 December 2022, the Office of Governor Newsom directed the CMD-IG to investigate and report on the allegation that a MG made offensive remarks.

2. COMPLAINANT STATUS: MG, SAD

3. ALLEGATION: Determine whether a SAD MG made offensive remarks in violation of Army Command Policy (AR 600-20), Chapter 6-2(b), CMD Regulation 600-1, Chapter 14-4, TAG Policy memorandum 2020-08, 2020-11, and 2020-13.

SUMMARY AND FINDINGS: The allegations that a SAD MG made offensive remarks in violation of Army Command Policy (AR 600-20), Chapter 6-2(b), CMD Regulation 600-1, Chapter 14-4, TAG Policy memorandum 2020-08, 2020-11 and 2020-13 were not substantiated. This office determined that there was insufficient evidence to support the allegation(s) that a SAD MG made offensive remarks.
